NO PHAGAN TRIAL BEFORE LAST OF JUNE DECLARES SOLICITOR

If Indictments Are Returned by Grand Jury When Bills Are Presented There Will Be No Immediate Trial

WM. J. BURNS COMING, SAYS THOS. B. FELDER

He Calls Upon the Public to Subscribe a Fund to Pay the Expense of Bringing Great Detective to Atlanta should the Fulton county grand jury meet next Thursday or Friday, return a true bill against either one or both of the men held in custody at the Atlanta Hotel. Mr. Felder said that if the grand jury were set at rest Thursday or Friday, the case would be set for trial before the last of June.

The return of the indictment at the special session of Leo M. Frank or New York is expected to be set for trial Thursday or Friday, the grand jury were set at rest Thursday or Friday, the case would be set for trial before the last of June.

The continuation of the case of the solicitor's office to make statements of which a stenographer is best. In working out the case, the detective has found no tangible evidence which has yet served to turn the authorities from the theory to which they have held practically since the beginning of the Phagan murder investigation, and it now appears that when the grand jury meets to consider the case the substitute will present as a substitute for the case of the two men who were ordered held by the coroner's jury after the exhaustive inquest.

Wednesday the solicitor general ordered a reporter for a morning paper, who has had in his possession a copy of the handwriting of the man who was in the case of the Phagan murder, and presumably the man who was in the case of the Phagan murder.

Assembly Urged to Ask Morals of Visitors Be Shielded—No Union of Mission and Church Extension Boards

Memorials concerning that no definite action be taken regarding the proposed union between the United Presbyterian church and the United Methodist church (together), were presented to the general assembly of the United Presbyterian church, Thursday morning at their second session in the Central Presbyterian church, and were referred to the standing committee on the basis of union.

At the last general assembly of the United Presbyterian church the basis of union committee was created to work jointly with a similar committee of the United Methodist church to bring about a basis upon which the union of the two churches could be effected.

The memorials presented to the United Presbyterian church were referred to the standing committee on the basis of union, and the contents have not been divulged.

By William T. Ellis
Will the big brother's bad manners be copied by the small brothers, or will the little brothers teach the big brother how to be good?

That, in a figure of speech, is the "burning question" before the U. S. A. assembly. The big brother is the pan-Prebyterian. The small brothers are the United Presbyterian, the United Methodist, and the United Baptist.
