

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

KNOCKS CARPET-BAGGER STOCK-BRIDGE.

H. E. Stockbridge, Editor Southern Ruralist, Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Sir: Since you have so boldly and openly insulted every virtuous woman in our fair Southland by your slanderous remarks about the poor child who died rather than surrender her honor to the dirty Jew, we think that the State of Georgia can get along without any of your advice in the future, so I shall consider it an honor if you will discontinue my subscription to your Jew-controlled paper.

The time has come when, to know the truth, we must not depend upon imported editors to lead us, but must follow such men as Hon. Thos. E. Watson, the only man who had the manhood to defy the Slaton-Rosser-Hass bunch and tell the truth.

Yours for protecting our women,
Ga. J. M. BAXTER.

HIGH TARIFF MEANS HIGH PRICES FOR HOME FOLKS, AND LOW PRICES FOR OUTSIDERS.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 17, 1915.

Dear Sir: In this week's issue of The Jeffersonian you mention the fact that the manufacturers of the United States give a discount to Chinese customers on goods bought by them, varying in amount up to 30 per cent. of the price charged to us Americans.

This is true, not only in regard to the Chinese trade, but to all other foreign countries, and is the result of our high tariff.

In this connection allow me to offer a suggestion: Let the advocates of high tariff build the tariff wall as high as you please around this country, but make American manufacturers and dealers sell their products and goods as cheaply to us home folks as they do to anyone else. If this should be done, see how quickly they will drop from the "high tariff" platform.

Yours very truly,
Ga. "OBSERVER."

TALIAFERRO FRIENDS SEND GOOD WISHES.

Dear Sir: We whose names appear below, wish to congratulate you on the magnificent way in which you handle the Frank case, in upholding the courts, and the honor of our people, a case that no daily paper seemed to want to give the people the true facts.

We wish to go on record as joining hands with those good old Columbia County friends in protecting the one man that has dared to fight for the under dog against big money and rotten politicians.

We want you to feel that we are with you to the finish in your fight for the right, and we don't intend to lose sight of the true issue, no matter what efforts are made by the Grant-Slaton Jew combine to muddy the water.

With best wishes for a long and happy life, we remain,

MANY TOWNS MISINFORMED ON GEORGIA'S CELEBRATED CASE

Dear Sir: We in Oklahoma, appreciate your bold stand for justice, and right, and clean government.

We note the unjust criticism of the Northern (subsadized) press on the State of Georgia and you, because you told the truth in The Jeffersonian and Watson's Magazine; and the citizens of Georgia would have justice done.

This little city was full of misinformation on the Frank case till they read the evidence in your magazine. Then doctors, lawyers, preachers and business men came over to Watson's side and said the State of Georgia had been lied on for effect.

We believe this wave of slander on the State of Georgia (there are many Georgians here) is not coming from the true Americans of the North but from the Jesuits and Knights of Columbus who are keeping their oath to break down and destroy any state or government controlled by protestants.

Mr. Watson, we are anxiously standing by you in your coming trial and hope to see you come out with flying colors on the side of right and free government, free press and free speech, for if we are not allowed to call the devil by his name, how shall we warn the people of him? Expose his tricks and his cunning, and keep the devil from getting us and the generations to come. Hurrah for the American constitution and men with grit to stand by it.

J. D. BRUNNER.

A FLORIDA MAN WHO WAS PRESENT AT FRANK'S TRIAL.

Dear Sir: I am enclosing a clipping from today's (Sunday's) Tampa Morning Tribune. I am a native of Georgia, was in Atlanta all during Frank's trial, was personally acquainted with poor little Mary Phagan, and of course know all the details of the case.

You notice this writer does not mention how dear, little Mary's life was to her. There is no mention of how she sacrificed her life for her honor. I am a reader of your very interesting paper The Jeffersonian, and hope to see an answer to this article through the columns of your paper.

Yours truly,
J. P. MARTIN.

LEAH WAS WELL REPRESENTED AT T. E. W.'S TRIAL.

Dear Sir: Inclosed find $5.00 to pay for a club of ten. You will find list on another page. Leah will be well represented at your trial.

Sometimes I fear your trial, but suppose it is lack of faith, for God will take care of such a man, so much needed in these States. While we women can't be at your trial we can only ask God's blessing on you, while you are fighting for your rights and the dear old home of ours.

Praying God's blessing on you and yours, I am,

Respectfully,
MRS. G. E. BLANCHARD.

HERE'S A MANLY VOICE FROM CANADA.

Dear Sir: See by Canadian papers Frank is lynched; was dressed in silk night gown; rather rich garb for a convict. Canadian papers look upon the lynching that the good people of Georgia were simply carrying out the law as laid down by the United States supreme court.

Yours truly,
G. H.

LIBERTY LOVING AMERICANS THANKFUL.

Dear Sir: Thank God for your vindication. All honor to the true, full-blooded Americans on the jury that tried your case. Their refusal to convict you proved to be liberty-loving Americans. Many thousands of true Americans are rejoicing over the failure of the Catholic Church in her prosecution of you. Long may you live and fight the good fight.

CONSIDERS MISTRIAL A VICTORY.

Dear Sir: I have been following with much interest your trial at Augusta. I congratulate you on your success. It is true, it was a mistrial, but I consider it a victory for you. I don't believe they will ever get a jury in the State of Georgia that will convict on the indictment as it now stands.

Wishing you all success in the future, I am very sincerely yours,
E. LeROY McLEAN.

ALL HONOR TO THE END.

Dar Sir: Despatches appearing in the New Orleans papers indicate that the court so limited the issue that it was as near to being a peremptory instruction to the jury to find a verdict of guilty as could possibly have been given.

However, I am disappointed that the entire jury failed to rise equal to the great opportunity presented, of declaring the independence of the jury and of its undoubted right to disregard such charges as those given by the court, and to exercise the undoubted right of a jury as judges of the law and the evidence, in such cases.

All honor to the independent, fearless and unpurchasable ten who stood for the right. May their tribe increase. So say we all.

Yours sincerely,

ANOTHER BELIEVER IN DOMESTIC MISSION WORK.

Dear Sir: I have been a reader of your Jeffersonian a long time and I can not find words to tell you how much I appreciate the way you go after the Foreign Mission fellows, and hypocritical grafters. By way of showing you my high appreciation of your noble work, I am sending you a list of thirteen names, for The Jeffersonian, with also money order for same, and will try to send more subscribers as fast as I can get them up. If we had more men as fearless as Mr. Watson, and if there were more men that would fight for what they believe to be right with the courage and the independence that Mr. Watson has, there would be fewer crimes to go on our records and fewer successful attempts to corrupt the public. How masterly has been Mr. Watson's defense of our state, our courts, our laws, and our people. Will some one kindly give me the name of one Baptist Preacher that believes in this foreign mission board, that defended poor fatherless Mary Phagan. Also kindly give me the name of one Baptist preacher, that will tell the congregation, when he is taking up the collection, for foreign missions, just how all the money is appropriated, and for what purpost it is used. Now brethren I want some more information from the mission board, why is it that eight associations in the state of Georgia, has cut loose from the state mission board? And with your present mission board, and so many officers and big salaries, and get on some biblical, plan for your mission and you will find that you will get along better in the mission of bringing souls to our Lord and Savior. With best wishes I am,

Yours truly,
R. J. McBRIDE.

FROM G. OF L. OF MACON.

Dear Sir: The Guardians of Liberty of Macon, Ga., in regular session assembled, desire to express to you their appreciation of the great work you are engaged in; the work of exposing the political activities of the Romish Hierarchy throughout America, a gigantic political machine determined to "make America Catholic" by destroying the constitution of the United States and substituting therefor the laws of that foreigner, the Italian pope, whose efforts would be successful were it not for a few men like you.

As to your "prosecution", as the cringing press puts it: "for sending obscene matter through the mails"—how careful the press is in safeguarding the fact that the "obscene" matter is the stuff petticoated political puppets of popery privately plasters petticoated penitents with in the confessional. It is another type of the Roman Catholic Inquisition in operation. A trick of the Jesuits and K. C.'s, for well do we know how Romanism in the older time, when that "church" dominated the state, the priesthood or hierarchy planned the inquisition, furnished the victims and commanded the "civil authorities" to execute, using every means that man and devil could invent to wring a cry of pain or squeeze a drop of blood from the victims that preferred to die by the fiendish hand of that church rather than bend the knee to an Italian pope; today Rome tries to stand from under her record, charging that the "civil authorities" were responsible for all the fiendish, inhuman cruelties inflicted upon mankind in those days when the laws of the pope were supreme. The explanation satisfies Romanists and hair-brained non-Romanists, but Americans knew that the Romish hierarchy then controlled and directed every tribunal, civil and religious, just as it is endeavoring to do today in the United States of America, and your trial is looked upon as a species of the Romish Inquisition. You feel the blow but cannot see the hand that delivers it.

All students of history and observers of contemporaneous conditions the world over, and especially in our own country, recognize in your prosecution a sinister effort to put the Roman Catholic Italian's law above our national law: the same principle that actuated Fitzgerald and Gallivan in presenting bills in Congress to destroy the constitution, because the pope commands his subjects to exert themselves to make the laws of the land conform to his laws, and he also says he has the right to annul constitutions; the same principle that caused those other subjects of his Knights of Columbus, to go up into the room of Rev. Wm. Black, on February 3, 1915, in Marshall, Texas, and shoot him to death; our Constitution says a man cannot be deprived of his life without due process of law, while the law of the Roman Catholic Church says it is no crime in a legal sense to kill one who has been turned out of the Italian pope's church; the principle that caused those Romanists to go up into the hotel room of Rev. Otis Spurgeon, in Denver, Colo., drag him down, carry him many miles out into the country, beat him into insensibility and leave him naked and bleeding to die like a dog by the wayside. The pope says he has the right to employ force; the same principle that makes Romanists discard their lawful wives in obedience to the pope's Netemera Decree. All these are only a revealed few of the efforts of the pope and his priests and Romish secret societies to "make America Catholic," and whatever may be the outcome of your trial, the effect of it will tend to convince Americans that in these United States as in Mexico, there can now be no peace nor stable government until it is decided once for all which shall be the supreme law of the land, the law of Italian popery, or the crystallized will of a free people known as the Constitution.

In your trial, it appears that Romanists are deeply concerned in the matter of purifying the United States mails. They would put you in the penitentiary for sending their church doctrine through the mails, yet they are content and willing for petticoated bachelor priests to send that lascivious, nasty, "obscene" stuff through the minds of their own females. Were it not for the fact that popery captures them in infancy and performs a criminal operation on their young minds in parochial schools, the Roman Catholic men would camp on the trail of the priests until they crossed the pond or landed in the pope's purgatory. And right here is to be found our interest in taking cognizance of the "religious" end of Romanism, if it has such an end. We know that when Rome gets in political control, it is only a question of time before she will then have control of education, after which our boys and girls would be brought up under Rome's system of mental suppression rendering them incapable of distinguishing Jesus Christ from a Romish priest-fellows who make Roman Catholic girls and women talk to them in language so obscene that a Federal prosecuting attorney was rejoiced because he could conduct his part of your trial without having to use that language. For this reason for one, no American will ever vote for a Romanist for political office, and will oppose the appointment of the pope's subjects to any position of public trust.

We thank God for such men as you, who are capable and willing to brave the Beast in behalf of a great, free, but sleepy people—people, though, who when they do get their eyes open will take care of the Romish Hierarchy in America.

Again assuring you of our appreciation of you and your work.

Respectfully,

The Trial of Thos. E. Watson.

IN our Forum column today we print by request a clipping from an Alabama weekly newspaper relative to Thos. E. Watson, editor and proprietor of The Jeffersonian, a periodical that has devoted itself to assaults on the Catholic Church and to arguments against Leo. M. Frank.

Watson has been on trial this week charged with sending obscene matter through the mails in violation of the Federal law. The jury failed to agree and Watson was discharged. One of the jurors in response to the court's inquiry said that if the jury were to consider the case thirty years they would not reach an agreement.

These two things, the Alabama publication and the jury's flat disagreement, indicate clearly that division of sentiment on Watson in Georgia distinctly and severely drawn. In other words there is no half way ground. He is either upheld or condemned. This being the case it would be extremely difficult to find a jury or any set of men in Georgia who would agree as to his guilt or innocence.

Furthermore, to sustain a prosecution such as that brought against Watson is practically an impossibility. His attacks are against an institution, and therefore they do not have the personal quality which is apparently essential for the maintenance of a trial before jury. Members of the jury have their convictions and ideas and sentiments and these things all necessarily weigh in the consideration of such a case.

Watson has been before the courts twice and each time he has escaped conviction. We doubt if he ever will be tried again on the offenses alleged

It is highly probable, however, that his activities in time to come will be much less violent than in time gone by. A man does not run into court trials with his eyes wide open, even if he knows such trials will result favorably to him, and in the last trial some of the jurors evidently were for a verdict of guilty.

Watson unquestionably is a courageous writer, a man who gives utterance to what he believes and is ready to accept the consequences. —Roanoke, (Va.) World-News.

FIGHT CONCERNS STATE AND NATION.

Dear Sir: Though not a subscriber to your paper, I have been a close reader of same for several months, and while I have for several years been an admirer of you, it was only after you began your magnificent fight in the Frank case that I became an out and out Tom Watson man.

How ever the fight for which you are now being persecuted is the one in which I am most interested for it concerns not only our beloved state but the nation.

To me it appears alarming that the people (or a part of them) will continue to refuse to see the facts and truths which have been so forcibly presented by you. However, I am sure that the people are waking up to their peril, and if you are spared long enough, you will see your mighty efforts crowned with success and will go down in history as the man who redeemed a nation.

I think there can be no more fitting time than now for your friends and admirers to rally to your support and express to you their confidence in and love for you.

I really think you will have no serious trouble in your fight before the court, but if you should be convicted, I believe it would be a sad day for your enemies. I do not believe the county would stand idly by and permit you to go down in defeat in any such manner.

God bless you Mr. Watson and spare you and direct and crown your efforts with success that as you have redeemed Georgia, so may you redeem America.

GEORGIAN.

FROM SECRETARY OF STATE COUNCIL OF GEORGIA, JR. O. U. A. M.

If I can serve you in any way, you have but to command me.
