Health Unimpaired, Frank Resumes Routine Life in Jail, Indictment of Conley as Accessory May Come Friday

FREE. BRAM ASSERTS HE SERVED 17 YEARS FOR ANOTHER'S CRIME

Thomas M. C. Bram, One Time Mate on American Bark; "Herbald" Fuller, Smiled His Way to Liberty
HE NOW ASKS WORK AND VINDICATION OF NAME
"It's Glorious, From Prison Life to Liberty," He Said as He Stepped From Prison-His Story

FREE AFTER SEVENTEEN YEARS

Who stepped from the federal prison Wednesday morning. Bram, who served 17 years of imprisonment for a crime he says he did not commit. He asks for work and a chance to vindicate his name.

As Mr. Frank returned to his cell at 10 o'clock on Monday, he was greeted by a crowd of men who were waiting to see him. He was in a good mood and seemed to be in good health. He had been in prison for some time and had become accustomed to the life there. He was now looking forward to the day when he would be able to leave and start a new life.

Wednesday morning there walked from the gate of the federal prison a thick-set man whose hair is white and whose mustache is white. He was free for the first time in seventeen years. He had come out to ask the world for a living, and to clear his name of a fearful triple crime which since the first day of his arrest he had maintained he did not commit.

The arraignment of Frank's indictment was made when Frank told Mary M. Klein and others left his cell. One of the gentlemen present was a man who had been in prison with Frank. He had been in prison for some time and had become accustomed to the life there. He was now looking forward to the day when he would be able to leave and start a new life.

He wanted nothing but work—a beating and a gain. His name will be cleared. He will be able to work and to live. He will be able to live and to work. He will be able to live and to work. He will be able to live and to work.

HERE'S WILSON'S MESSAGE ON MEXICAN SITUATION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—President Wilson's message to Congress today on the Mexican situation is as follows:

HE TELLS MEXICANS PLAINLY UNITED STATES WON'T STAND FOR HARM TO ANY AMERICAN

Nation's Executive Bares Mexico Conditions to Both Branches of Congress and Declares for Strict Neutrality Forbidding the Exportation of Arms or Munitions of War of Any Kind From Any Part of the United States Into Mexico.

So Many Guarneys

AGENCIES

Getting a job on one of the agencies is a hard thing to do. It requires a lot of skill and a lot of luck. It is a job that is not for the faint of heart.

KEEP ON HOPING

Last Monday morning when he went to his usual daily routine as a guard at the prison, he was told that the prisoner had escaped. He was told that the prisoner had escaped and that he was now on the loose.

HE TELLS HIS STORY

In the early part of his story, Bram tells of his early life and how he came to be in prison. He tells of the various crimes he committed and how he was caught.

FRANCIS IN MEXICO MEANS MUCH TO UNITED STATES

The peace, prosperity and contentment of Mexico means much to the United States. It is a country that is rich in resources and has a large population. It is a country that is important to the United States.

REPLY OF MEXICAN GOVERNMENT

Accompanying the President's address was the reply of the Mexican government. The Mexican government has expressed its appreciation for the President's message and has stated that it will continue to work for peace and stability in Mexico.

PREACHMENT

People who have never read the Bible are in a state of ignorance. They do not know the truth about God and His plan for humanity. They need to be taught the Word of God and to live by its principles.

JOURNAL WANTS

There is a way to get a job. It is by working hard and being honest. It is by being a good person and a good citizen. It is by being a member of the community and helping others.

AGENCIES

Getting a job on one of the agencies is a hard thing to do. It requires a lot of skill and a lot of luck. It is a job that is not for the faint of heart.

Here Is Mexican Message of Wilson

THEME FOR WILSON

tion by the authorities at the capital is evidently impossible by any other means than force.

RUERTIA HAS FAILED TO MAKE GOOD HIS PROMISES

"Difficulties more and more entangle those who claim to constitute the legitimate government of the republic. They have not made good their claim in fact. Their successes in the field have proved only temporary."

"Friends who could wait no longer for a solution which every week insisted further away it was our duty at least to volunteer our good offices to offer to assist. If we failed in effecting some arrangement which would bring relief and peace and set up a universally acknowledged political authority there."

Accordingly I took the liberty of writing the Hon. John Lind, former governor of Minnesota, as my personal spokesman and representative with the following instructions:

INSTRUCTIONS WILSON GAVE TO GOVERNOR JOHN LIND

"I am very sorry to hear of the attention of those who are now exercising the government of Mexico, which the country will obey and respect."

The government of the United States does not stand in the name case with the other great governments of the world in respect to what is happening in Mexico. It is our duty to act as Mexico's nearest friend."

ACTED FOR THE GOOD OF MEXICO'S FUTURE ALONE

"We wish to act in those circumstances in the spirit of the most earnest and disinterested friendship. It is our purpose in whatever we do or say to do so in the spirit of the most disinterested friendship."

"We are seeking to counsel Mexico for her own good and in the interest of her own people, and not for any other purpose."

It is one thing to make soda crackers that are occasionally good.

It is quite another thing to make them so that they are always better than all other soda crackers, always of unvarying goodness.

The name "Uneeda"—stamped on every biscuit—means that if a million packages of Uneeda Biscuit were placed before you, you could choose any one of them, confident that every soda cracker in that package would be as good as the best Uneeda Biscuit ever baked. Five cents.

Making Woman's Work Lighter!

Do you know that there are something like 50,000 patented articles, the purpose of each of which is to lighten some part of a woman's work?

Do you know that great companies have scores of high priced experts doing nothing else but working out new ideas for the household?

It is an education to walk through a modern houseware store; there is something new every day.

Labor saving devices form a particularly important part in a woman's life during the hot weather.

Merchants and manufacturers bring these new ideas to public notice through the advertising columns of The Journal.

Watch the advertising in The Journal for suggestions for lifting some of the burdens.
