

Monday Is the Anniversary Of Death of Mary Phagan

Monday is not only Memorial day to our soldier dead, but also the first anniversary of the death of little Mary Phagan, who was murdered one year ago tomorrow.

A special car will be chartered to carry the friends to Marietta Monday afternoon to lay flowers upon her grave and be present at a special memorial service conducted by an Atlanta minister. The car will carry about eighty persons, and there will be no charge. The cost will be covered by subscriptions.

Subscriptions already made are as follows: V. O. Rankin, $1; D. E. Shumaker, $1; G. C. Tucker, $1, and W.

H. Higgins, $1. A complete list of the names of those subscribing will be published in Monday's Constitution.

If the subscriptions are more than sufficient to pay for the car, the remaining funds will be expended on flowers, or if the surplus amount is large enough, two cars will be chartered. But the trip will be free to all. All who are interested are invited and those who cannot get a seat in the special car are invited to pay their way on regular cars and be present at the services at the grave.

The special car will leave from the Walton street car barn Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock and will return at 5 o'clock. All who wish to go are requested to meet at that place.
